the terrorist attack on the twin towers the afghan conflict waves of migration and the presence of twelve million muslims in the european union these are just a few of the things that have helped contribute to a growing interest in islam its culture and its followers they awaken old and new questions about a religious cultural and political reality that 1 200 000 000 people consider themselves a part of this book is the result of a series of extended interviews between an internationally acclaimed expert on islam and two journalists who have dedicated themselves for many years to studying key themes of islam and analyzing the possibility of coexistence between people of different faiths and cultures how was islam born what does the qur an represent for muslims what relationships have developed between islam and violence between islamic culture and the west how can a real integration of islam take place in european societies what are the conditions for a constructive encounter between christians and muslims samir khalil samir one of the world s leading experts on islam responds to these questions in an in depth interview that can help one learn and judge for oneself without prejudice or naivete this is a contribution in the spirit of the realism needed in order to build adequate ways of living with those who have become our new neighbors this volume contributes to a better understanding of the religious life in central asia as well as political and social issues in the region with a focus on islamic culture traditions and pre islamic beliefs from 1962 to 1965 in perhaps the most important religious event of the twentieth century the second vatican council met to plot a course for the future of the roman catholic church after thousands of speeches resolutions and votes the council issued sixteen official documents on topics ranging from divine revelation to relations with non christians but the meaning of the second vatican council has been fiercely contested since before it was even over and the years since its completion have seen a battle for the soul of the church waged through the interpretation of council documents the reception of vatican ii looks at the sixteen conciliar documents through the lens of those battles paying close attention to reforms and new developments the essays in this volume show how the council has been received and interpreted over the course of the more than fifty years since it concluded the contributors to this volume represent various schools of thought but are united by a commitment to restoring the view that vatican ii should be interpreted and implemented in line with church tradition the central problem facing catholic theology today these essays argue is a misreading of the council that posits a sharp break with previous church teaching in order to combat this reductive way of interpreting the council these essays provide a thorough instructive overview of the debates it inspired offering an authoritative study of the plural religious landscape in modern syria and of the diverse christian and muslim communities that have cohabited the country for centuries this volume considers a wide range of cultural religious and political issues that have impacted the interreligious dynamic putting them in their local and wider context combining fieldwork undertaken within government held areas during the syrian conflict with critical historical and christian theological reflection this research makes a significant contribution to understanding syria s diverse religious landscape and the multi layered expressions of christian muslim relations it discusses the concept of sectarianism and how communal dynamics are crucial to understanding syrian society the complex wider issues that underlie the relationship are examined including the roles of culture and religious leadership and it questions whether the analytical concept of sectarianism is adequate to describe the complex communal frameworks in the middle eastern context finally the study examines the contributions of contemporary eastern christian leaders to interreligious discourse concluding that the theology and spirituality of eastern christianity inhabiting the same cultural environment as islam is uniquely placed to play a major role in interreligious dialogue and in peace making the book offers an original contribution to knowledge and understanding of the changing christian muslim dynamic in syria and the region it should be a key resource to students scholars and readers interested in religion current affairs and the middle east
