a local sheriff is led to the discovery of four bodies the bodies appear to be of middle eastern men with no definitive causes of death a call is placed to fbi agent jefferey scott requesting his assistance in investigating the deaths of the four men are the deaths just isolated murders might their deaths be an act of a racial hate crime or could something more sinister be involved investigation by scott and his junior agent harry sykes lead them to multiple cities in several states following leads as well as their educated assumptions as the number of disturbing events mushrooms the two agents must draw in more law enforcement personnel to assist them everyday life is being impacted by attacks on critical municipal utilities and the deliberate execution of innocent masses seems inevitable the longer the evidence is analyzed and studied the trail of leads becomes more entwined and the sadistic spider web of illicit actions and attacks continues to grow very real and potentially catastrophic threats to people s lives are imminent unless the perpetrators can be identified and stopped the question is will the clues and leads be enough can the law enforcement officers led by scott be able to correctly discern the information being accumulated accurately and quickly enough to stop the activists before the threatened acts can be carried out the storm is rising
