the management of elections is increasingly generating impassioned debate in these east african nations burundi kenya rwanda tanzania and uganda the bodies that manage and conduct elections are therefore coming under intense citizen and stakeholder scrutiny for the manner in which they are composed how they organise and perform their mandates and the outcomes they achieve the effectiveness of electoral management bodies embs has largely been influenced by the impact of political violence on election management reforms in east africa even in countries where embs are the products of reforms initiated in the aftermath of violent disputes over elections they still face enormous challenges in dealing with electoral disputes and anticipating election related crises although changes to constitutions and the laws in these countries have sought to make embs independent and therefore more inclined to deliver free fair and credible elections there are many issues that determine their impartiality and their ability to allow for the aggregation and free expression of the will of the people these shortcomings negatively impact on democracy this volume assembles case studies on the capacity of embs in these five east african countries to deliver democratic and transparent elections this volume provides a multidisciplinary analysis of disinformation and strategies for tackling it authored by a diverse group of scholars and experts chapters in this volume are divided into three thematic sections the first section delves into disinformation from various disciplinary perspectives including philosophy social psychology economics international law data science anthropology political science and history by examining the underlying factors behind disinformation and analyzing its impact on democratic processes this section sheds light on its complexities and reminds us that different policy responses are always grounded in different explanatory angles of the phenomenon the second section focuses on the information ecosystem investigating the processes technologies and actors involved in the spread of disinformation by examining real world examples and the roles played by different actors and technologies this sheds light on the intricate workings of disinformation in different thematic and regional contexts the book culminates in the third section which focuses on crafting effective responses to disinformation chapters in this section explore policy efforts aimed at ensuring information integrity across the world and highlight the importance of fundamental rights and evidence based policy responses encompassing self and co regulation quality journalism fact checking organizations and the pivotal role media literacy initiatives

a new way to think together work together and impact students together despite regular meetings and planning sessions collective leader efficacy often remains an untapped resource leaving leadership teams working in silos and increasing the challenge of creating environments where every student and adult can thrive lead collectively bridges this gap by providing a comprehensive framework for shared understanding joint work and evidence based decision making to strengthen leadership teams and amplify their impact on teaching and learning drawing on decades of leadership experience and research authors peter m dewitt and michael nelson offer actionable tools protocols and insights to help educational leaders foster trust coherence and accountability additional features include a step by step collaborative inquiry cycle to guide leadership teams from identifying problems of practice to tracking measurable results guidance on integrating ai tools to analyze data assess impact and enhance collaboration case studies and real world stories illustrating how schools and districts have transformed their leadership practices through collective efficacy more than a guide lead collectively is an invitation for leaders to foster collaboration to achieve meaningful lasting change whether you re leading at the school or district level this book equips you with the tools to grow as a leader and drive measurable improvement for your students and educators efforts have been made toward the application of electronic government in the developing world yet questions of how to best implement governance systems and address concerns from officials and citizens alike remain to be answered emerging issues and prospects in african e government explores relevant practices trends and potential challenges facing fledgling governments in the digital era this book focuses on the establishment and maintenance of e government in various african countries providing critical insights for government bodies policymakers administrators and public sector researchers working in local state and national governments around the world elections and technology are inseparable in today s world technology is regarded as a technical instrument to attain certain electoral goals such as efficiency and effectiveness as well as to ensure a high quality process and integrity of results however in practice the proposition of adopting technology in elections is often not accompanied by deep thinking and adequate preparations consequently the use of technology often becomes a paradox the intention being to solve a problem but new problems are created instead based on this observation this guide has been written to provide a tool for election administrators or nations which like indonesia are considering the use of technology in elections in indonesia technology has been widely used since the 2014 general elections especially to meet open data principles in elections despite this the general elections of 1999 2004 2009 and 2014 and various regional elections have used electoral technology for only two main objectives data tabulation and transparency of the electoral process at the time of writing e voting and e recapitulation are being discussed for implementation in indonesia s future elections as well as providing step by step guidance and points of consideration for various decision makers this guide also features various types of voting technology that exist to date accompanied by the experiences of several countries in using them the guide describes the various types of electoral technology that have been used in indonesia capturing their track records and the lessons learned lessons that may be useful to other countries demonstrating that voting technology does not need to be limited to e voting the contributors assess to what extent regional organizations in europe and latin america provide a space for the regulation and provision of social policies in the area of social protection higher education and health they analyse the impact of regional organizations on social citizenship following political struggle and contestation
