Specialized Schools for High Ability Learners focuses on educational programming offered in nontraditional, publicly approved and private settings with important details about how to serve high ability learners in specialized schools and deliver schoolwide educational change. Each chapter offers a differentiated resource for educators who are interested in designing and implementing programs in specialized school settings by providing a discussion of the critical components for inclusion in a carefully planned, coherent, and quality-minded K-12 curricular sequence. This book delivers a comprehensive discussion with recommendations for the learning experiences of high talent students in specialized schools and alternatively approved educational programs through relevant research and practical applications. This compendium will help in developing high levels of talent among the next generation of competent critical thinkers.

A Call to Share by Zke Zimmerman: A Call to Share is a collection of letters that together define and identify systemic racism in America. The letters contained herein address systemic racism and how it has manifested in various segments of our society: education, corporate, government, and the church, most frequently through acts of omission. Each letter in this book contains suggested, admittedly often partial, solutions to the dominant manifestations of racism in a selected segment of our society.
