fun to get the same book each summer and see how their writing progresses choose a certain number of prompts you would like your child to have completed by the end of the summer for example 25 let them skip around and choose the prompts they would like to complete if your little writers are reluctant talk with them about the prompt for the day make it fun brainstorm ideas they could write about support them encourage them to explore their ideas and praise their effort you can even give them a fun reward for each completed prompt stickers smiley faces etc each time they earn five stickers or smiley faces they get a treat that they love ice cream money extra screen time whatever works to motivate your child create a schedule for your child to ensure the writing gets completed and remember to make it fun maybe it's something you do after breakfast or after dinner each day praise and reward your child for the effort they put into their writing this isn't the time for criticism you can use this as a teaching tool as well for example if you see that your child never starts a sentence with a capital letter or does not use correct subject verb agreement you can teach these skills on the side but separately from their prompts please don't take out a red pen and destroy their writing just file away the knowledge and address it at another time happy thriving 2021 thriveinthehive life
