Pronoun-Antecedent Agreement: Pronouns must agree in number and gender with their antecedents (the nouns they refer to). This is like name tags: the pronoun is the tag and the antecedent is the person it refers to. They must match.

Active and Passive Voice: Understanding the difference between active subject performs the action and passive subject receives the action. Voice is vital for clear and concise writing. Active voice is direct and impactful, like a punch; passive voice is indirect, like a gentle push.
