this is the essential english edition of the complete poems of the eminent japanese master of the haiku matsuo bashō matsuo bashō 1644 1694 is arguably the greatest figure in the history of japanese literature and the master of the haiku bashō the complete haiku of matsuo bashō offers in english a full picture of the haiku of bashō 980 poems in all andrew fitzsimons translation is the first to adhere strictly to form all of the poems are translated following the syllabic count of the originals this book also translates a number of bashō s headnotes to poems ignored by previous english language translators in fitzsimons beautiful rendering bashō is much more than a philosopher of the natural world and the leading exponent of a refined japanese sensibility he is also a poet of queer love and eroticism of the city as well as the country the indoors and the outdoors travel and staying put of lonesomeness as well as the desire to be alone his poetry explores the full range of social experience in edo japan as he moved among friends and followers high and low the elite and the demi monde the less fortunate poor farmers abandoned children disregarded elders bashō the complete haiku of matsuo bashō reveals how this work speaks to our concerns today as much as it captures a japan emerging from the middle ages for dedicated scholars and those coming upon bashō for the first time fitzsimons elegant translation with an insightful introduction and helpful notes allows readers to enjoy these works in all their glory the west has become familiar with japanese haiku predominantly through the works of classical masters such as bash buson and issa if the leading haiku poets in modern japan are unknown in the west it is simply because translations of their works have not been available this anthology presents in english translation twenty haikus each from the work of twenty modern poets the writers have been selected to exemplify the various trends that have dominated japanese haiku in the last hundred years but the individual haiku have been selected for literary merit more than anything else this is intended to be a book of poetry in the introduction professor ueda traces the development of the verse form to the present brief biographies of the twenty poets are also provided haiku by its very nature asks each reader to be a poet thus for each haiku the poetic translation is accompanied by the original japanese and a word by word translation into english and the reader is invited to compose his own poem to enter into that private relationship with the poem that haiku demands this work is an anthology of nearly 500 translated poems many available in english for the first time from the eighth to twentieth centuries
