most of our communities are fragmented and at odds within themselves businesses social services education and health care each live within their own worlds the same is true of individual citizens who long for connection but end up marginalized their gifts overlooked their potential contributions lost what keeps this from changing is that we are trapped in an old and tired conversation about who we are if this narrative does not shift we will never truly create a common future and work toward it together what peter block provides in this inspiring new book is an exploration of the exact way community can emerge from fragmentation how is community built how does the transformation occur what fundamental shifts are involved what can individuals and formal leaders do to create a place they want to inhabit we know what healthy communities look like there are many success stories out there the challenge is how to create one in our own place block helps us see how we can change the existing context of community from one of deficiencies interests and entitlement to one of possibility generosity and gifts questions are more important than answers in this effort which means leadership is not a matter of style or vision but is about getting the right people together in the right way convening is a more critical skill than commanding as he explores the nature of community and the dynamics of transformation block outlines six kinds of conversation that will create communal accountability and commitment and describes how we can design physical spaces and structures that will themselves foster a sense of belonging in community peter block explores a way of thinking about our places that creates an opening for authentic communities to exist and details what each of us can do to make that happen
