since the earliest days of the movie industry hollywood has mythologized itself through stories of stardom a female protagonist escapes the confines of rural america in search of freedom in a western dream factory an ambitious conceited movie idol falls from grace and discovers what it means to embody true stardom or a fading star confronts hollywood s obsession with youth by embarking on a determined mission to reclaim her lost fame in its various forms the stardom film is crucial to understanding how hollywood has shaped its own identity as well as its claim on america s collective imagination in the first book to focus exclusively on these modern fairy tales karen mcnally traces the history of this genre from silent cinema to contemporary film and television to show its significance to both hollywood and broader american culture drawing on extensive archival research she provides close readings of a wide range of films from souls for sale 1923 to a star is born 1937 and 1954 and judy 2019 moving between fictional narratives biopics and those that occupy a space in between mcnally considers the genre s core set of tropes its construction of stardom around idealized white femininity and its reflections on the blurred boundaries between myth image and reality the stardom film offers an original understanding of one of hollywood s most enduring genres and why the allure of fame continues to fascinate us to what extent have hollywood feature films shaped the meanings that americans attach to alcoholics their families and the alcoholic condition to what extent has the mass culture of the movie industry itself been conceptually shaped by a broad external societal discourse norman denzin brings to his life long study of alcoholism a searching interest in how cultural texts signify and lend themselves to interpretation within a social nexus both historical and diachronic in his approach denzin identifies five periods in the alcoholism films made between 1932 and the end of the 1980s and offers a detailed critical reading of thirty seven films produced during these six decades professor denzin has produced a searching and provocative interpretation of more than a half century of hollywood s social and personal construction of the problem drinker in america readable by both lay persons and specialists denzin s book provides us with the most comprehensive understanding of this topic to date stanford m lyman robert j morrow eminent scholar in social science florida atlantic university an eminent sociologist and leading authority on alcoholism denzin also writes skillfully about films as films and is comfortable with postmodern interpretive theory A genuinely interdisciplinary work of the first order robert l carringer author the making of citizen kane denzin has gone on an exhaustive bar crawl through hundreds of movies returning with evidence that the film about drinking is a genre of its own he writes from sound knowledge about alcoholism which unlike other diseases is frequently viewed with bittersweet romanticism roger ebert norman k denzin is professor of sociology cinema studies and interpretive theory at the university of illinois urbana champaign he was awarded the george herbert mead award for lifetime achievement from the society for the study of symbolic interaction he is the author of several books including screening race hollywood and a cinema of racial violence the recovering alcoholic interpretive ethnography images of postmodernism social theory and contemporary cinema and interpretive interactionism harold arlen s songs like over the rainbow and stormy weather form a crucial part of the american soundscape of the twentieth century from their origins at the cotton club of harlem the broadway stage and hollywood film studios they capture an extraordinary range of emotions and styles harold arlen and his songs is the first book to look at arlen s music across his long career and through his collaborations with the top lyric writers of his time including ted koehler yip harburg johnny mercer and ira gershwin the book also discusses arlen s activities as a singer of his music as well as the performances of vocalists with a strong affinity for it like ethel waters judy garland ella fitzgerald and barbra streisand

i have completed this manuscript just remember this or as american pop singers 1900 1950 about music before the 1950s in america it perhaps offers knowledge and insights not previously found in other musical reference books i have moreover been working on this book very meticulously over the past twelve plus years it started as a bit of fun and gradually became serious as i began to listen along with the vocalists of popular music of the era before 1950 essentially just before the dawn of rock and roll if you can call it that indeed genre and labeling of american music started here and then from everywhere while the old adage of always starting from somewhere could be noted in every century the 1900s had produced the technology understanding the necessity more so finds a curiosity on the part of a general public hungry for entertainment despite 6 day work weeks world war i the great depression and world war ii
