before the term science fiction was adopted in the 1920s there were scientific romances tales of amazing journeys beyond the limits of the known world Jules Verne's imaginative novels of the mid nineteenth century met with international success whetting the public's appetite for fantastic fiction rooted in actual fact a craving that H.G. Wells satisfied with his visionary stories this compilation presents more than two dozen early tales by Verne's and Wells's immediate predecessors contemporaries and descendants focusing on the middle period when the genre was at its most enterprising and exuberant originally published between 1835 and 1924 the stories offer early interpretations of the futuristic societies rogue stars rebellious machines and other now familiar themes of speculative fiction featured authors include edgar allan poe nathaniel hawthorne ambrose bierce h g wells jack london and sir arthur conan doyle as well as lesser known writers brian stableford a legendary science fiction author and editor selected the stories for which he provides an informative introduction and brief biographies for each author the edwardian period was a time of great social and political change the six texts in this edition are all notable for their imaginative portrayals of the future this is the only critical edition of these works essays and introductory matter explore the themes in the novels as well as the literary historical context they appeared in
