as nearly perfect as any american fiction i know is how reynolds price the new york times described this classic that has been a favorite of readers both here and in europe for almost forty years set in provincial france in the 1960s james salter s a sport and a pastime is the intensely carnal story part shocking reality part feverish dream of a love affair between a footloose yale dropout and a young french girl there is the seen and the unseen and pages that burn with a rare intensity exercises in rhetoric and english composition by george carpenter rice first published in 1891 is a rare manuscript the original residing in one of the great libraries of the world this book is a reproduction of that original which has been scanned and cleaned by state of the art publishing tools for better readability and enhanced appreciation restoration editors mission is to bring long out of print manuscripts back to life some smudges annotations or unclear text may still exist due to permanent damage to the original work we believe the literary significance of the text justifies offering this reproduction allowing a new generation to appreciate it john cotton shaped the doctrine worship and discipline of a fledgling society striving to live fully under god s word with clarity conviction and pastoral warmth he addressed both the great ecclesiastical questions and the intimate personal wrestlings of his time the works of john cotton gathers his most important treatises and sermons in a newly edited cloth bound set it recovers a vital link in the chain of reformed thought and reintroduces a voice that helped shape the american church before it had a name
