a little girl makes crowns and sells them to help raise money for the pedestal needed for mounting france s gift to this country of the statue of liberty to begin with her coloring is a little on the green side not to mention that she grows a few inches every day smart independent and a friend to all when little miss liberty outgrows her classmates her clothes her house even her city she sets out to travel the world and in the end she finds just the right spot to call her own author artist chris robertson has created a humorous yet uplifting story about one of the world s most symbolic monuments an enjoyable romp and a perfect read aloud it will entertain even the squirmiest listener and yet in its own way remind us why lady liberty is both unique and important hit the road and see america with the statue of liberty the statue of liberty is feeling a little blue despite being green as much as she loves welcoming people to america standing still for over a hundred years has left her with a stiff neck aching arms and a cramp in her leg this lady could use a vacation with some encouragement from her friend moe the pigeon lady liberty takes off to see the rest of america she explores the sandy beaches of cape cod the waving wheat fields of kansas the breathtaking grandeur of the grand canyon and the cozy sunshine of the california coastline but will lady liberty make it back to new york city for the fourth of july and will she even want to lady liberty s journey is lighthearted and fun publishers weekly a fun and fabulous read for a fourth of july storytime school library journal here is the story of how the statue of liberty got its pedestal when joseph pulitzer a jewish immigrant and famous newsman created one of the first american crowdfunding campaigns to raise money for it when joseph pulitzer first saw the statue of liberty s head in paris he shared sculptor auguste bartholdi s dream of seeing france s gift of friendship stand in the new york harbor pulitzer loved words and the word he loved best was liberty frustrated that many especially wealthy new yorkers were not interested in paying for the statue s needed pedestal pulitzer used his newspaper the new york world to call on all americans to contribute claudia friddell s text and stacy innerst s illustrations capture this inspiring story of how one immigrant brought together young and old rich and poor to raise funds for the completion of a treasured national monument
