this set of notes was originally written by me in preparation for my a level examination and has been checked by my teachers the idea behind the format of this set of notes is that every point for essay questions is phrased rather similarly only the topic sentence and link of each point differ from essay to essay thus i wrote every point in a generic manner that can be applied to every essay with minimal modification this will free up precious time in exams by eliminating the need to think through the phrasing of each point
