the very notions of childhood and youth are intimately connected to contemporary norms practices and spaces of care caring and care giving the provision of care is widely figured as both the primary responsibility of parents carers and practitioners who work with children and young people and the primary factor in shaping children and young people's development education socialisation wellbeing and contentment however children and young people themselves are rarely figured as key actors in the provision of care an overwhelming presumption that children and young people are to be cared for has effectively marginalised their agency and responsibilities as carers or in relation to practices and spaces of care bringing together a significant array of multidisciplinary work on children young people and families this collection draws together new research on the diverse lives and experiences of children and young people as carers as cared for and in relation to spaces and institutions of care it is the first collection specifically devoted to the subject of care in relation to childhood and youth as such the book will be a key resource for academics practitioners and students seeking leading edge empirical and conceptual material on this topic
