this fascinating work profiles abu hamid al ghazali 1058 1111 the foremost islamic scholar and mystic of the medieval period appointed head of the nizamiyyah college at baghdad he attracted interested audiences from across the islamic world due to a spiritual crisis he went into self imposed exile during which he wrote the sufi masterpiece revival of the sciences of religion this is a stimulating introduction to the great man s life and work this encyclopedia covers the full range of islamic thought it takes substantial note of contemporary trends across the muslim world and the material on historical islam has contemporary reference imam abü hamid al ghazalı is perhaps the most celebrated muslim theologian of medieval islam yet little attention has been paid to his personal theology this book sets out to investigate the relationship between law and politics in the writings of ghazalı and aims to establish the extent to which this relationship explains ghazalı s political theology articles concerned with ghazalı s political thought have invariably paid little attention to his theology and his thinking about god neglecting to ask what role these have contributed to his definition of politics and political ethics here the question of ghazalı s politics takes into account his thinking on god knowledge law and the koran in addition to political systems and ethics yazeed said puts forward the convincing argument that if ghazalı s legal and political epistemology provide a polemic analogous to his writings on philosophy for which he is more famed they would reveal to us a manifesto for an alternative order concerned with a coherent definition of the community or ummah this book will be an invaluable resource for students and scholars of the middle east political theology and islamic studies the first comparative work to explore how humankind seek out the meaning of life amid suffering and struggle motivated by the intellectual historian shahab ahmed s observation that the history of islamic paideia has yet to be written islam as education explores multiple forms that the search for knowledge and the transmission of wisdom have taken in islam focusing on the classical period 800 1500 ce ghiloni draws on a wide range of islamic primary source material ranging from sacred texts and parables to neglected pedagogical literature and paintings he depicts three islamic religious practices pilgrimage prophecy and jihad as modes of pedagogy embodied ways of defining defusing and defending sacred knowledge islam as education s educational heuristic not only aids in understanding islam but also provides guidance for intercultural and interreligious relations ghiloni argues that islam s grand knowledge tradition serves as a bridge between muslims and non muslims and compares it with the educational theory of john dewey the celebrated american pragmatist based on this discussion a final chapter develops practical tools for learning from cultural and religious difference volume seven of a ten volume set which provides full and detailed coverage of all aspects of philosophy including information on how philosophy is practiced in different countries who the most influential philosophers were and what the basic concepts are

has appendices

this volume covering entries from abbagnano nicola to byzantine philosophy presents articles on eastern and western philosophies medical and scientific ethics the holocaust terrorism censorship biographical entries and much more based on both original classical sources and modern literature as well as the author s considerable personal experience this is not only a fascinating survey of islamic customs and beliefs but also a serious attempt to show the place of islam in the religious universe
