my friends and family congratulated me on my marriage expressing their overwhelming admiration for my selflessness but behind my back they tapped their forefingers against their temples she didn't understand what he was driving at and he repeated the question explaining very explicitly how much are you asking for convincing miriam to leave the boys in my custody and how much will she settle for in order to leave the country not everything can be bought or negotiated through money gitty remarked trying to stare him straight in the eyes bingo he was the first to lower his gaze it had been a gamble she knew a dangerous one i don t generally do business with women but you can stay was this a compliment this book explores the roles that control abuse bullying and family violence can play within the tourism system while it is generally understood that such behaviours are significant issues in society the correlation between these types of behaviour and tourism has not been assessed in scholarly circles the volume sets out to explain each of these behaviours within tourism industries using autoethnography as its method this book reveals the heightened risk of family violence during family events sporting events and in the tourism system and explains that risks continue and can even increase after separating from a perpetrator of family violence this is an important and under researched area in the tourism and events literature and will be of interest to researchers and practitioners in these fields as well as family violence social work health and law you can see the author s blog post about her work here channelviewpublications.wordpress.com 2023 03 22 the dark side of family tourism
