christian churches in recent decades have taken some steps in their practices of liturgy and worship toward acknowledging the graced dignity of human variety but who is still excluded what pernicious norms still govern below the surface and how might they be revealed how do texts gestures and space abet and enforce such norms how might christian assemblies gather multiple expressions of human difference to propose through christian liturgy patterns of graced interaction in the world around them liturgy with a difference gathers a broad range of international theologians and scholars to interrogate current practices of liturgy and worship in order to unmask ways in which dehumanizing majoritarianisms and presumed norms of gender culture ethnicity and body among others remain at work in congregations together the chapters in this collection call for a liturgical practice that recognizes and rehearses the vivid richness of god s image found in the human community and glimpsed if only for a moment in liturgical celebration they point a way beyond mere inclusion toward a generous embrace of the many differences that make up the christian community with contributions from rachel mann teresa berger susannah cornwall miguel a dela torre edward foley w scott haldeman michael jagessar bruce t morrill kristine suna koro and frank senn foreword by ann loades

there has been ongoing controversy over the place of non heterosexuals in church and society with ordination and same sex unions being particular hot button topics now kenneth d thurrow a pastor in the evangelical lutheran church in america makes a compelling case for welcoming non heterosexuals to a place at the table basing his case on the bible the social sciences and the theology and mission of the church this book offers guidance on interpreting the bible examines what the bible says about sexual behaviors explores the concept of abomination invites reflection on life outside of eden declares welcome to be a vital part of the church s mission and recommends specific actions an accessible fresh compelling reframing of the issues around non heterosexuality moving beyond current rhetoric this book returns to essential questions how do we read the bible see ourselves as church and understand the mission of god as including radical hospitality it will encourage dialog around one of the hot topic issues facing the church dr ann fritschel associate professor of hebrew bible wartburg theological seminary makes an excellent case for enlightened understanding of scripture discussion of biblical texts is vast and fair chapters provide excellent lead ins to discussion dr frank benz professor emeritus of old testament wartburg theological seminary
