experience with his fifth grade sweetheart now laden with sadness and guilt he searches in vain for the young woman and her family the search begins when he crashes his car into a prairie fence in east texas one rainy april morning in 1992 little does he know that this chance blunder is destined to have repercussions far beyond the deep scratches on the rear of his car inexplicably he will be drawn back to this spot again and again andys search is complicated by the seeming anonymity of the woman he seeks it is also burdened by distractions arising from his career and his entanglement with the fbi they regard him as suspect because hes snooping around neighborhoods asking questions still he pushes on but he is growing weary and afraid just the plain mystery of it allthe inexplicable absence of even the tiniest clue as to her whereabouts threatens to strangle his dedication even more crippling is the beating he takes from his own internal confusion guilt sad memories and difficult questions now a frightening picture is emerging something unthinkable has happened to the family he seeks
