My First Encounters with the Other My interest in anthropology wasnt sparked by a grand lecture hall or a dusty textbook It began with a simple fascination As a child I was utterly captivated by the vibrant tapestry of my grandmothers stories Her tales of growing up in a small village in the Himalayas with its unique traditions and customs painted a world profoundly different from my own I found myself constantly questioning the differences yearning to understand the why behind their choices This intuitive curiosity planted the seed for a deeper exploration of anthropology It wasnt about judging or categorizing but about empathizing and understanding Later volunteering at a local museum allowed me to interact with artifacts from various cultures Each object whispered tales of a different time and place connecting me to the human story in ways I never thought possible
