the beatles were not only the most influential rock band of all time but also one of the most important cultural phenomena of the 20th century this book provides a firsthand look into the life of this fascinating group including bios on each beatle and annotated discography of the groups recordings abundantly illustrated with full color and bandw photos of the fab four and memorabilia with several other discographies available on the group it is inevitable that this volume contains much duplication its premise is to list in sequence information on every beatles recording arranged in seven different chronologies the first of these a 306 page overview is a virtual day by day calendar pinpointing recording sessions concert and tv appearances interviews and personal facts other chronologies treat u s and u k recording release dates and are divided by specialties etc these essentially replicate the overview indexing is thorough but contains errors and is not amenable to quick reference although less expensive wiener s work cannot match the comprehensiveness of harry castleman and walter p podrazik s the end of the beatles pierian pr 1985 paul g feehan univ of miami lib coral gables fla library journal the audition doctor of backstage shares the secrets of successful auditioning for the musical theatre fred silver uses his twenty five years of experience in the theatre training thousands of actors to give vital advice on choosing the right voice teacher or vocal coach why auditioning for a musical is different from auditioning for a play choosing the right material how to act a song what to sing at a callback how to handle the accompanist what to wear to auditions how to sell a comedy number how to handle stage fright plus lists of more than 130 excellent yet unusual songs including selections suitable for juvenile actors romantic leads character actors comics and performers who are primarily dancers with a foreword by charles strouse composer of annie and bye bye birdie when fred silver writes it is worthwhile to read carefully and practice what he teaches donald pippin music director of oliver mame a chorus line and la cage aux folles this volume is a guide to theatre production including all aspects from choosing and casting a play make up set design suggestions for actors and directors house management administration and publicity the editor introduces stage terminology as well as production roles time lines and responsibilities among many other topics
