the subject of the holy spirit the third person of the trinity as the holy scriptures present it is one of those arguments which both in the past centuries as well as up to us that we live in the twenty first century has been the object of bitter and long polemics for the simple fact that not everyone believes and accepts the doctrine of his personality since for some it is nothing other than the active force of god and not a real person distinct from god the father therefore knowing what the bible has to tell us about the holy spirit is very important not only to learn what the holy scriptures have to refer to in this regard but also to know how they present it and with what characteristics they define it having an overview of the many steps that the bible has around the holy spirit will primarily serve not only to have clear ideas but also to be able to objectively evaluate what the writers of the old and new testaments intended to tell us about the spirit of god in fact the bible presents it indicating it in several passages such as the holy spirit the spirit of god and the spirit of the lord speaking of abraham it is not the simple tale of a character of antiquity who was famous abraham that the bible presents as the father of a people that is the jews because if this is true in that it cannot be disputed according to what the bible says it is also true that abraham is not only the acknowledged father of the jews but it is also the father of faith as the new testament recognizes it as such the purpose of our intervention is not only to talk about this but mainly highlight the characteristics that abraham had that from the point of view of faith made him famous not only among the jews but also in the midst of christianity in fact when christianity speaks of abraham and holds him up for example of faith it does so primarily on the basis of the characteristics that showed in believing in god and in having faith in him in all that which god said and the promises the he promised these are the essential elements of antiquity proved that this man in his time which made him famous in this area of life christianity do not hesitate to call the christian character supported especially by the testimony that the same jesus he made when talking about him and pointed for example model to the religious jews who constantly challenged
