I have written many books and articles on various topics, but since 2013 I have devoted myself fully to writing the interpretation of the Holy Quran in English. And with the grace of Allah, I have completed the whole Quran on 29th October 2020. With 84 books, I believe there is a great need in the whole world for the correct interpretation of the Holy Quran to be written in English. Currently, there is a great misunderstanding about Islam among Muslims and non-Muslims globally. The misunderstanding of the meaning of the Holy Quran among Muslims will lead to the wrong practice of Islam, which leads to the wrong actions of Muslims. The wrong actions of Muslims will lead to misunderstandings about Islam among Muslims and non-Muslims. The wrong actions of the Muslims have led to many miseries and wars among Muslims. The wrong actions of Muslims have also led to many wars and clashes between Muslims and non-Muslims. In order to avoid miseries, wars, and clashes from taking place between the whole mankind in the whole world, the whole mankind in the whole world needs to understand the true teaching of Islam. There is no other way for the whole mankind to understand the true teaching of islam unless the whole mankind is able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the holy quran the whole mankind is only able to read and understand the correct interpretation of the holy quran when it is written in the universal language of the world english for this very reason i have written the interpretation of the holy quran in english prof nasoha bin saabin a revelatory account of early islam s great diversity by the world s leading scholar of early qur anic manuscripts there is no one better placed than françois déroche to write the history and tell the story of how the quran went from words uttered by muhammad to inviolable canonical scripture this is a meticulous lucid and fascinating book shawkat toorawa yale university according to muslim dogma the recited and written text of the qur an as we know it today scrupulously reflects the divine word as it was originally sent down to muhammad an examination of early islamic sources including accounts of prophetic sayings all of them compared with the oldest qur anic manuscripts reveal that plurality was in fact the outstanding characteristic of the genesis and transmission of the qur an both textually and orally by piecing together information about alternative wordings eliminated from the canonical version that gradually came to be imposed during the first centuries of islam françois déroche shows that the qur an long remained open to textual diversity not only did the faithful initially adopt a flexible attitude toward the qur anic text an attitude strikingly at odds with the absolute literalism later enforced by muslim orthodoxy but muhammad himself turns out to have been more concerned with the meaning than the letter of the divine message
