aesthetics after modernism argues for the ongoing relevance of aesthetics to art after modernism in it i show that even what are typically taken to be the hardest of hard cases engage us in recognisably aesthetic ways and as such remain amenable to aesthetic analysis why if that is true do so many art theorists critics and sometimes even artists appear to think otherwise i trace the artworld s rejection of aesthetic theory to clement greenberg s success in co opting the discourse of aesthetics notably kant s aesthetics to underwrite his own formalism about modernist art not only has this led to kant being tarred with the brush of greenbergian formalism it has also led critics and theorists of later art to miss the resources of the aesthetic tradition perhaps especially kant for capturing what is distinctive about our cognitive relation to the kinds of art that interest them there is a tendency simply to assume that kant s aesthetics cannot speak to the more conceptual aspects of our interactions with art i trace the legacy of greenberg s modernism and formalism for later art criticism and theory before offering an interpretation of kant s theory of art that seeks to show otherwise i take conceptual art as my test case here is a form of art that often claims to forgo sensible properties altogether but if kant s aesthetics can accommodate to our cognitive relation to art with no sensible features relevant to its appreciation as art then it should in principle withstand the challenge of any form of art
