only the impossible is worth doing is a biography of a revered master of vajrayana buddhism eminent humanitarian and profound innovator in the fields of psychotherapy and medicine choje akong tulku rinpoche brought immense benefit to the world after a dramatic escape from his homeland of tibet in 1959 rinpoche established and became the spiritual leader of kagyu samye ling europe's first tibetan buddhist monastery from there his activity flourished and gave rise to remarkable projects across the globe after rinpoche's sudden and tragic passing in 2013 a conference was held at the university of oxford to commemorate his life and achievements the event was presided over by khenpo tsultrim lodro rinpoche one of the most renowned lamas and scholars of larung gar buddhist institute in the tibetan highlands the speakers were individuals responsible for upholding akong tulku rinpoche's projects and activities around the world this book is the outcome of the conference illustrating the life story of a truly compassionate leader of our time taming the tiger offers a simple approach to finding happiness for oneself that also brings happiness to others based on twenty years of buddhist teaching in the west taming the tiger aims to help anyone seeking the truth about suffering and happiness the first part of the book deals with topics such as impermanence the right motivation facing the situation body speech and mind compassion and mindfulness the second part is devoted to exercises meditations and relaxation techniques for body and mind including feeling openness taking suffering bringing the buddha to life and universal compassion the exercises designed to provide a base of self knowledge mind therapy and self healing have also been found beneficial in therapy workshops and in the treatment of psychological problems this practical programme has been tested and refined first at therapy workshops of samye ling in scotland the oldest tibetan buddhist centre in the west and has since confirmed its success in cities throughout europe north america and africa bringing definitive solutions to long term problems weighing heavily on the mind taming the tiger of the mind is a necessary step on the path to personal growth and self mastery with wit and wisdom akong tulku rinpoche teaches how to confront and subdue the ceaseless mental chatter within true peace he explains may be achieved through a practical program for cultivating awareness and bringing the spiritual into everyday life only then may we find the sort of happiness that also brings happiness to others the author explores the pitfalls that result from our habits of thought he discusses such things as motivation and compassion and how one can aspire to right conduct through the practice of mindfulness an introductory guide to using the key concepts of tibetan buddhism in everyday life includes a series of practical exercises by which to change our patterns of living and thinking practiced consistently these can provide a basis for self knowledge mind therapy and self healing 1967 akong tulku rinpoche and chogyam trungpa rinpoche author of meditation in action founded the kagyu samye ling tibetan centre in scotland the oldest tibetan buddhist center in the west benchmark analysis of the extent of shifting contemporary engagement and practice of uk buddhist communities which challenges the stereotype of other worldly buddhist asceticism interest in buddhism has exploded in the last couple of decades and millions of people around the world view tibetan buddhism as the religion's most pure and authentic form yet a political conflict among tibetan lamas themselves is now poised to tear the tibetan buddhist world apart and threaten the integrity of its thousand year old teachings on august 2 1993 rumtek monastery was attacked its monks were expelled and the cloister was turned over to supporters of a boy lamas appointed by the chinese government but rumtek was not in china and its attackers were not communist troops rumtek was in india the refuge for most exiled tibetans and it was tibetan lamas and monks themselves who led the siege yet evidence shows that chinese agents directly supported tibetan lamas and monks who attacked rumtek monastery while a complete picture of this controversy has been blurred by the media s focus on international buddhist celebrities buddha s not smiling challengers readers to judge for themselves the health of tibetan buddhism today what makes you think work and meditation are two different things dr akong tulku rinpoche enlightened management is about running successful profitable businesses it is also about achieving happiness for everyone involved in a business whether boss or employee the first part of the book discusses from a buddhist perspective the skills which every manager has to learn including taking responsibility paying attention competition winning and losing working with emotions the second part is a step by step practical guide to building the clarity of insight and vision which every manager needs collective biographies predominantly of tibetan buddhist lamas
