best new african poets 2018 anthology follows volumes in 2017 2016 and 2015 in this fourth volume of these continent wide anthologies of african poetry we have work from 154 african poets from over 30 african countries and the african diasporas there are poems in english french portuguese sepedi shona yoruba and asante twi languages in 2018 there was a notable increase in the number of entries with memorable novelties regarding poetic experimentation some of the poets have daringly sliced up words playing around with the spatial and structural patterns of their texts on paper this may be described as both textual and visual poetry reading the poems becomes a journey with many paths where the reader walks according to poetic rhythms and the hesitating breaks of action verbs and enjambments best new african poets 2016 anthology has 251 pieces from 131 poets and artists in 7 languages english portuguese french afrikaans shona yoruba and kiswahili from 24 african countries and diasporas with south african and angolan poets dominating the list we also have a healthy number of poets from uganda zimbabwe kenya moambique ghana and nigeria the nationalist sense is the one that most predominates with its pink blue and gray tints that are expressed in parallel with existentialist perspectives that in turn go hand in hand with love desire hankering joy sensuality that transports us to epic lyrical utopian contexts without being lost in fantasy they are artistic lines sometimes with traditional and sometimes more innovative touches however in contrast and to a lesser extent almost as if there were resistant and with restraint we also find desolation pain negation that can be so sweet or so bitter that it allows the imagination to stop in a lament or end in resignation
