this publication offers a comprehensive overview of banking regulation across 24 jurisdictions this review presents a general picture set within a macroeconomic context of regulatory achievements and challenges in australia including regulatory quality at federal level as well as across levels of government competition policy and market openness the work challenges the commonly accepted idea that the european single market needs a harmonized company law as a precondition for its correct functioning on the basis of a law and economics comparison with the american situation the study critically analyzes the two major reasons advanced to justify harmonization the race to the bottom argument and the standardization argument on the basis of the regulatory competition paradigm and concludes that they are basically wrong instead of pursuing harmonization of substantive company law the proposal is to adjust conflict of law rules in favor of the incorporation theory as ruled by the european court of justice in its important centros decision of march 1999 companies should be granted freedom of establishment and free movement among jurisdictions in the european union no major business or law firm can afford to disregard the european commission's power in the control of mergers since the council of ministers adopted the ec merger regulation in 1989 the power of the european commission has increased steadily the scope of the merger regulation now occupies a central role in many mergers taking place both inside and outside the european community to come within the scope of merger regulation and thus within the commission's jurisdiction a merger must possess a community dimension despite the careful definition of this term in the merger regulation itself the concept has created problems in many cases the european commission's jurisdiction to scrutinise mergers offers a comprehensive up to date analysis of all aspects of the community dimension concept the most thorough examination of the commission's jurisdiction to examine mergers under the ec merger regulation the european commission's jurisdiction to scrutinise mergers serves as a valuable guide for businesses their legal advisors and competition law enforcers in both the commission and the member states
