one night phillip scarnum hauls an abandoned fishing boat off the rocks near halifax in a snowstorm risking his life in the harsh north atlantic for the hope of a decent salvage fee when he finds a stash of drugs aboard the ship and her captain turns up dead scarnum finds himself on the run from the cops and a dangerous gang of drug runners aggression in pornography focusses on the issue of violence in mainstream pornography and examines what we know what we think we know and what are some surprising research findings and insights about the place of violence within pornography today the authors first review the modern pornography industry theoretical claims about pornography as violence and the ways in which aggression has been defined and measured in previous research next they review the findings of empirical research on violent content in pornographic materials and the potential effects of such content on audiences the main part of the book relies on systematically collected empirical data as the authors analyze the content of hundreds of pornographic videos as well as more than a hundred interviews with men and women who regularly watch pornography these analyses provide surprising insights regarding the prevalence of and trends in violent content within mainstream pornography the popularity of violent and non violent content among viewers and variations in aggression by race and sexual orientation as such aggression in pornography will be of interest to students and researchers in sociology gender and sexuality studies and media and film studies as well as to wider audiences who are interested in today s pornography industry and to policymakers looking to devise empirically driven policies regarding this industry and its potential effects professor gail dines has written about and researched the porn industry for over two decades she attends industry conferences interviews producers and performers and speaks to hundreds of men and women each year about their experience with porn students and educators describe her work as life changing in pornland the culmination of her life s work dines takes an unflinching look at porn and its affect on our lives astonishingly the average age of first viewing porn is now 11 5 years for boys and with the advent of the internet it s no surprise that young people are consuming more porn than ever but as dines shows today s porn is strikingly different from yesterday s playboy as porn culture has become absorbed into pop culture a new wave of entrepreneurs are creating porn that is even more hard core violent sexist and racist to differentiate their products in a glutted market producers have created profitable niche products like teen sex torture porn and gonzo in order to entice a generation of desensitized users going from the backstreets to wall street dines traces the extensive money trail behind this multibillion dollar industry one that reaps more profits than the film and music industries combined like big tobacco with its powerful lobbying groups and sophisticated business practices porn companies don t simply sell products rather they influence legislators partner with mainstream media and develop new technologies like streaming video for cell phones proving that this assembly line of content is actually limiting our sexual freedom dines argues that porn s omnipresence has become a public health concern we can no longer ignore
