Canadian fiction studies are an answer to every librarian's, student's, and teacher's wishes: each book contains clear information on a major Canadian novel, attractively produced, they contain a chronology of the author's life, information on the importance of the book and its critical reception, an in-depth reading of the text and a selected list of works cited.

Penelope Wain believes that her lover Neil MacRae has been killed while serving overseas under her father that he died apparently in disgrace does not alter her love for him even though her father is insistent on his guilt what neither Penelope or her father knows is that Neil is not dead but has returned to Halifax to clear his name Hugh MacLennan's first novel is a compelling romance set against the horrors of wartime and the catastrophic Halifax explosion of December 6, 1917.

December 6, 2017 was the 100th anniversary of the Halifax explosion as it unfolds against the compelling background of wartime Halifax. Barometer Rising exhibits all of what Queen's Professor D. O. Spettigue describes as MacLennan's imaginative power and literary craftsmanship: the tight melodramatic plot fuses together a tender love story, a bitter father-son conflict and a desperate search centering on the famous harbour explosion. The novel stands in the front ranks of Canadian literature.
