thesis m a from the year 2009 in the subject film science grade 1 3 university of potsdam institut für anglistik und amerikanistik language english abstract my thesis new evil the joker in the dark knight as a post september 11 villain establishes a picture of gotham city that is more realistic than in previous batman films the population of this city is realised in three parts the mob consists of african americans and other ethnic americans the jetset is almost completely light skinned in between one finds gothams police mixed ethnic black and white but also known to be corrupt indeed the film follows subtle anti state sentiments in making the three highest officers in gotham ethnic americans garcia loeb and surrillo only a dysfunctional state makes the nightly operations of a vigilante like batman a person who decides for himself what is good and what is bad necessary the predecessors of the joker are the great villains of film and culture history starting with shakespeare s iago up to slashers like freddy krueger the joker clearly does not fit into the three part pattern in the first part of my paper his malice is sourced by four different strands references to satan references to femininity

references to disability and references to a terrorism clearly related to the one of al Qaeda and its supporter groups in establishing a villain along these lines the producers of the film address a mainstream which is in their view reactionary latently racist and anti emancipatory though the film makes exceptional statements eg Morgan Freeman evil in their eyes is either black disabled or feminine in its displayed reaction to the new threat of the Joker Batman sets up a surveillance systems that monitors all citizens of Gotham the film can be interpreted as a defense of the Bush policies after 9 11
