edited by morag styles and written by an international team of acknowledged experts this series provides jargon free critical discussion and a comprehensive guide to literary and popular texts for children each book introduces the reader to a major genre of children s literature covering the key authors major works and contexts in which those texts are published read and studied the development of the horror genre in children s literature has been a startling phenomenon one that has provoked strong but mixed reactions frightening fiction provides a lucid and lively guide to that genre ranging from analyses of such popular series as point horror goosebumps the x files and the buffy stories to the work of individual authors such as robert westall david almond philip gross and lesley howarth contemporary american horror literature for children and young adults has two bold messages for readers adults are untrustworthy unreliable and often dangerous and the monster always wins as it must if there is to be a sequel examining the young adult horror series and the religious horror series for children left behind the kids for the first time and tracing the unstoppable monster to seuss s cat in the hat this book sheds new light on the problematic message produced by the combination of marketing and books for contemporary american young readers a comprehensive study of children s fantasy literature across the english speaking world from the sixteenth century to the present the author of the popular fear street series presents a spine chilling story of terror on the beach the sun is hot the water s cold and the kids are cool too cool to live for a killer stalks them one by one never leaving a clue a killer who disappears as completely as footprints in the sand
