come on get happy everyone wants to be happy here in this profound volume is a road map for discovering a life filled with happiness joy and a sense of purpose the dalai lama s basic premise is that each of us is responsible for our own health and happiness and for the health of society he further asserts that health and happiness are within our reach both individually and collectively how a person thinks behaves and feels ultimately impacts not only their own lives but also the society in which they live if you desire to attain happiness you must understand that the journey begins with you it is only then that you can reach out and touch the lives of others and change society in this anthology his holiness the dalai lama with characteristic wisdom humor and kindness directs readers toward a happy healthy and peaceful life talking about universal themes such as compassion peace non violence secularism and the pursuit of a healthy mind and body he reminds us that the responsibility to change our thoughts actions and lives lies within our power this is a book for fans of his holiness for spiritual seekers and for those interested in the spiritual and emotional health of individuals and societies the fourteenth dalai lama was born on the fifth day of the fifth month of the wood hog year of the tibetan calendar july 8 1935 just as the soul of the thirteenth dali larna was taking flight the present dalai lama is the fourteenth of a line of priet kings who have ruled tibet more or less independently of china since the fifteent century china s claims to tiebt data back to the thirteenth centry when the mongol conquerers of china proper made tibet a part of their empire also evern sicne china has sought to assert her authority whien her empire has been strong but has always been rejected by the tiebtans when she has been week at a time and in a culture where science and technology have taken over from religious belief when ethics are understood primarily in terms of aesthetic choice or legality how are we to formulate moral principles to guide us in our daily lives though religion can certainly help in this the dalai lama demonstrates that there are universal principles we can draw on which transcend the dilemma of belief or unbelief and whilst many have been content to speak of spiritual matters as something mysterious or evanescent the dalai lama explains his approach in terms that are as clear and concise as they are compelling with wit gentle good sense and with penetrating insight the dalai lama shows how the truths that have stood the test of generations of practise can provide us with the tools to live happy fulfilled and meaningful lives in the process it becomes apparent that he does not merely espouse the feelgood religiosity some accuse him of the reader is left admiring not just the wisdom of the author but the wisdom of the culture he represents the essence of all spiritual life is your attitude to others his holiness the dalai lama with clarity and candor the dalai lama expounds on the core teachings of buddhism fusing ancient wisdom with a modern sensibility he gently encourages each of us to embrace lives of love and compassion to embrace individual responsibility his pithy reflections encourage us to rid ourselves of preoccupation with the ephemera of daily life and to find refuge in buddha dharma and sangha inspiring provocative and thoughtful this slim volume will be read and treasured for years to come this selection of addresses interviews and biographical essays is intended to convey a picture of the dalai lama s personal life his wide ranging interests and his thoughts on issues of global concern it is hoped that this combination will give the reader who is relatively unfamiliar with the dalai lama a deeper appreciation of this man of peace he emerges as a highly pragmatic man dedicated to the establishment of non violent solutions to human problems in the personal environmental and political arenas this book is admittedly of an introductory nature many of the topics introduced here are explained in much greater detail and depth in other books by the dalai lama in the words of the dalai lama the purpose of religion is not to build churches and elaborate temples but to cultivate positive human qualities such as tolerance generosity and love this text contains the four talks given by the dalai lama when he attended a meeting of buddhist and christian monks at gethsemani abbey kentucky the dalai lama shares his understanding of four major themes explored in the meeting the practice of prayer and meditation in the spiritual life the stages in the process of spiritual development the role of the teacher and the community in the spiritual life and the spiritual goals of personal and societal transformation in each talk the dalai lama expresses the basic principles of tibetan buddhism and shows how they are applicable to daily practice for all spiritual seekers regardless of their religious affiliation in 1999 his holiness the dalai lama published the bestselling ancient wisdom modern world which addressed the question of ethics for the new millennium a decade later his holiness enters the contemporary debate about religion vs atheism and returns to the theme of ethics with a major new work beyond religion ethics for a whole world in this thought provoking new book he argues that religion is not a necessity for pursuing a spiritual life rather focusing on tolerance and understanding between religions as well as tolerance and understanding between believers of any faith and non believers is the way forward the way to achieve such an approach he proposes is through a system of secular ethics grounded in a deep appreciation of our common humanity aimed particularly at the general reader beyond religion ethics for a whole world is a modern day polemic which outlines those ethics he believes should be central to our lives if you could sit down with the dalai lama and talk with him about anything what would you discuss fabien ouaki a prominent french businessman was granted such an opportunity and asked the dalai lama for his thoughts on the everyday issues that fill our newspapers and our lives this is the record of these varied and remarkable conversations covered are a wide spectrum of topics political social personal and spiritual including the media and education marriage and sex and disarmament and
