from joanna trollope one of the most insightful chroniclers of family life writing fiction today comes a contemporary retelling of sense and sensibility jane austen's classic novel of love money and two very different sisters john dashwood promised his dying father that he would take care of his half sisters but his wife fanny has no desire to share their newly inherited estate when she descends upon norland park the three dashwood girls elinor marianne and margaret are faced with the realities of a cold world and the cruelties of life without their father their home or their money with her sparkling wit joanna trollope casts a clever satirical eye on the tales of elinor and marianne dashwood reimagining sense and sensibility in a fresh modern new light

she spins the novel's romance bonnets and betrothals into a wonderfully witty coming of age story about the stuff that really makes the world go around for when it comes to money some things never change
