artistic interventions are now a popular means of delivering fresh perspectives on museum displays including in galleries devoted to ancient egypt installations are commonly said to put the past and present into dialogue with each other offering external critical voices on the work of decolonisation contemporary art and the display of ancient egypt argues that the contemporary and the ancient do not necessarily inform each other instead they are mediated by and mediations of the museum that produces them rather than explore how contemporary artists have been inspired by egypt this book examines how they have shaped the language and discourse around study of the egyptian past by looking at the wider field of public display in which both have been historically situated building on this critical history of practice the book draws from experiments in bringing contemporary artistic sculptures conceptual pieces multimedia films sounds smells and performances into galleries at the british museum in london the egyptian museum in turin and the state museum of egyptian art in munich these are used to explore what contemporary art does in these spaces the motivations for inviting artists in and the legacies of those interventions it ends with a reflection on how academics and curators can be involved in the creative process and how artists contribute to academic research praise for contemporary art and the display of ancient egypt this is an important and innovative study on the recent history of incorporating art installations in galleries of egyptian antiquities offering a thoughtful critical analysis of the ways in which contemporary art and ancient artefacts are juxtaposed in museum settings the book calls for a more nuanced and politically engaged practice of collaboration between artists and egyptologists stephanie moser university of southampton archaeologist alic Stevenson provides a thoughtful consideration of the goals and intent behind contemporary art interventions in exhibitions of ancient egyptian art she challenges the curators scholars and museum professionals who design these exhibitions to move beyond the simplistic ancient art contemporary art juxtaposition and instead use contemporary art interventions to create spaces for both artistic and academic insight and inspiration i look forward to such dialogue kara cooney ucla

a great museum is not only a collection of works of art or artefacts of various interest and various importance it is also a living organism which has its own history to tell and if the museum is of ancient origin this can be of great fascination in itself it is enough to think of a collection's formation of its progressive development which over the centuries takes account of and is shaped by the cultural interests of the time or of the acquisition sometimes fortuitous of the various works or of the changing tastes reflected in their display and the various methods used in their restoration or of the political developments or doctrinal implications in which the museum may find itself involved the Vatican museums whose origins go back to the early 16th century exemplify all these concerns in a particularly comprehensive and fascinating way their initial formation almost in the character of a private collection their threatened dispersal in the Counter Reformation their recovery under the impetus of the intellectual revival in the 18th century their development also in defence of the artistic patrimony of the state threatened by exports at the end of the same century their subsequent enlargement up to more recent times thanks to the distinguished patronage of the various popes and lastly their incorporation at times exemplary in the context of the vatican palaces first with simonettis museo pio clementino then with sterns braccio nuovo and more recently with beltramis pinacoteca and passarellis museo paolino all this constitutes not only a field of study comparison and reflection but also at times an example which others have followed the present book ideally would have required a far more extensive archival documentation than the author has been able to consult it is to be hoped that the systematic exploration of the huge but very scattered archival sources available may make it possible in future to update or to amplify those parts of the book that were unable to benefit from this irreplaceable support it may be claimed nonetheless that it has proved possible to reconstruct the history of the vatican museums in sufficient detail and that this book may prove useful at a time when the history of collecting is arousing increasing interest contents foreword i the antiquario delle statue from julius ii to paul iii 1503 1549 ii the first vatican collection of antiquities from julius iii to sixtus v 1550 1590 iii from clement xi to clement xiii the museo ecclesiastico and the museums of the vatican library 1700 1769 iv clement xiv and the foundation of the museum clementinum 1769 1774 v a great season for the vatican museums the pontificate of pius vi 1775 1799 vi the works of art of the papal state in paris vii reconstitution and growth of the vatican museums from pius vii to pius viii 1800 1831 viii the foundation of new museums in the vatican and at the lateran by gregory xvi 1831 1846 ix the vatican museums from pius ix to pius x the museo pio cristiano and the new pinacoteca vaticana 1846 1914 x reorganization and growth of the collections from benedict xv to pius xii the building of a special gallery fro the pinacoteca and the foundation of the museo missio nario etnologico 1914 1958 xi from john xxiii to paul vi amalgamation of all the papal museums within the vatican foundation of the collection of modern religious art and of the museo storico 1958 1978 xii the vatican museums today bibliography abbreviations archival sources periodicals general bibliography indexes topographical index of the works of art in the vatican cited in the text analytical index
