an international bestseller by one of this century's most prominent theologians on being a Christian is a work of exhaustive scholarship born of the author's passionate belief in Jesus Christ as the center of existence. Hans Kung here assesses the impact of other world religions, humanism, science, technology and political revolutions and sifts through the theological controversies within the Christian community. Itself, he affirms the vitality and uniqueness of Christianity by tracing it back to its roots, the reality of the historical Christ. But more than history or theology on being a Christian, he reexamines what it means to be a Christian today, the role of Christian ethics in a social and political context, the relationship between Christians and Jews, the organization of a community of believers and practical suggestions for dealing with personal crises of faith. This image books edition will reach even larger segments of the population for whom the book was written. Kung defines his audience as those who do not believe but nevertheless seriously inquire who did believe but are not satisfied with their unbelief; who do believe but feel insecure in their faith; who are at a loss between belief and unbelief; who are skeptical both about their convictions and about their doubts.

who are christians and atheists gnostics and agnostics pietists and positivists lukewarm and zealous catholics protestants and orthodox a landmark work for both scholars and educated laity on being a christian has become a small summa of the christian faith this is not another gospel kung contends but the same ancient gospel rediscovered for today once liberal christianity was preached in ways that defined it in the public eye now christianity is identified almost exclusively with its conservative expressions seasons of the christian life presents a series of sermons articulating a liberal christianity over against its conservative neighbors they were preached at the university church marsh chapel at boston university save for one preached in memorial church at harvard during the 2004 2005 academic year when president george w bush was reelected and the country was at war in iraq and afghanistan and at war with terrorists wherever they could be imagined the sermons follow the revised common lectionary and focus on biblical interpretation as it is applied to the then current spiritual cultural social and political situation the author is a professor of theology and at the time was dean of marsh chapel and chaplain of the university
