for nearly a decade michael lind worked closely as a writer and editor with the intellectual leaders of american conservatism slowly he came to believe that the many prominent intellectuals he worked with were not the leaders of the conservative movement but the followers and apologists for an increasingly divisive and reactionary political strategy orchestrated by the republican party lind s disillusionment led to a very public break with his former colleagues on the right as he attacked the reverend pat robertson for using anti semitic sources in his writings in up from conservatism this former rising star of the right reveals what he believes to be the disturbing truth about the hidden economic agenda of the conservative elite the republican capture of the u s congress in 1994 did not represent the conversion of the american public to conservative ideology rather it marked the success of the thirty year old southern strategy begun by barry goldwater and richard nixon from the civil war to the civil rights revolution the southern elite combined a low wage low tax strategy for economic development with a politics of demagoguery based on race baiting and bible thumping now lind maintains the economic elite that controls the republican party is following a similar strategy on a national scale using their power to shift the tax burden from the rich to the middle class while redistributing wealth upward to divert attention from their favoritism toward the rich conservatives play up the culture war channeling popular anger about falling real wages and living standards away from wall street and focusing it instead on the black poor and nonwhite immigrants the united states lind concludes could use a genuine one nation conservatism that seeks to promote the interests of the middle class and the poor as well as the rich but today s elitist conservatism poses a clear and present danger to the american middle class and the american republic
