a journal of women studies the annual bibliography of women and literature appears in the fall issue of each volume 1975 spring 1976

Aptheker weaves together the voices of women survivors of the holocaust and of the U.S. concentration camps for Japanese Americans, Chicana cannery workers and southern cotton mill girls, older lesbians and elderly Jews, Afro American women in slavery and contemporary Afro American writers and others in order to explore women's ways of seeing. Her analyses of oral histories, novels, legends, poetry and art show how we can use these records of women's and men's lives. Sandra Harding, Women's review of books
