this book explores the issues that surround medically assisted reproduction it addresses the place of destiny including how to think about individual destinies in an age of increasingly accessible gene sequencing paired with a growing link between procreation and prediction in 1996 physicist alan sokal published an essay in social text an influential academic journal of cultural studies touting the deep similarities between quantum gravitational theory and postmodern philosophy soon thereafter the essay was revealed as a brilliant parody a catalog of nonsense written in the cutting edge but impenetrable lingo of postmodern theorists the event sparked a furious debate in academic circles and made the headlines of newspapers in the u s and abroad in fashionable nonsense postmodern intellectuals abuse of science sokal and his fellow physicist jean bricmont expand from where the hoax left off in a delightfully witty and clear voice the two thoughtfully and thoroughly dismantle the pseudo scientific writings of some of the most fashionable french and american intellectuals more generally they challenge the widespread notion that scientific theories are mere narrations or social constructions some of the most well known psychoanalysts and literary theorists explore jacques lacan s influence on literature the relationship between literature and psychology is long and richly complex and no more so than in the work of jacques lacan the most controversial psychoanalyst since freud the literary lacan from literature to lituraterre and beyond is dedicated to assessing lacan s significant contribution to literary studies and the contribution in turn of literature to lacanian psychoanalysis the first essays in this collection provide close readings of lacan s literature related work specifically his work on hamlet his homage to marguerite duras and lewis carroll his concept of lituraterre and his seminar on james joyce other essays examine lacan s theories in conjunction with the works of major writers such as samuel beckett the book concludes with essays that investigate lacan and literature more broadly including the applicability of literature to psychoanalysis with well known contributors including slavoj zizek jacques alain miller russell grigg and ellie ragland this volume will appeal not only to specialists in literary and lacanian theory but also to students and enthusiasts of the master and the literature that inspired him
