communication speaks to today's students with modern examples that illustrate nonverbal communication in their lived experiences. This new edition, authored by three of the foremost scholars in nonverbal communication, builds on the approach pioneered by Burgoon, Buller, and Woodall, which focused on both the features and the functions that comprise the nonverbal signaling system grounded in the latest multidisciplinary research and theory. Nonverbal communication strives to remain very practical, providing both information and application to aid in comprehension.

This volume focuses on nonverbal messages and their role in close relationships: friends, family, and romantic partners. For scholars and students in personal relationship study as well as social psychology, interpersonal nonverbal communication, family, the current volume featuring 28 contributions from cutting-edge researchers emphasizes uses, purposes, origins, and consequences of nonverbal communication in the lives of individuals, dyads, and groups. In other words, the behaviour of human beings as such. The volume as a whole is not just about communication systems per se, nor the impact on humans of the physical environment, whether built or natural. Instead, the volume focuses on humans engaging in nonverbal communication and the communicative and psychological aspects of this behaviour. Nonverbal behaviour is an inclusive category and includes all emitted nonverbal behaviour that may be subject to interpretation by others, whether the behaviour is intentionally produced or not. This panoramic volume, edited by two of the world's leading authorities on nonverbal communication, contains 28 essays presenting the state of the art in the domain of nonverbal behaviour study.
