this study deals with the structural and exegetical relationship between pre existence and incarnation in the dynamics of john s prologue john 1 1 18 it discusses the point in the narrative at which the shift from the pre existent logos to the incarnate christ takes place and therefore the perspective from which the individual parts of the passage vss 1 5 vss 6 13 vss 14 18 should be interpreted by making a detailed and comprehensive analysis of the text and evaluating all contrasting views on the subject the book shows the essential chronological order of the narrative whose climax vss 14 18 is not the announcement of the incarnation proper but rather a profound theological reflection on the significance of that event based on the covenantal traditions of the exodus story and later prophetic expectations
