this book contributes to existing debates on the responsibility to protect r2p by demonstrating new advocacy strategies and the greater interconnectedness of various r2p proponents in 2021 the un general assembly adopted a new resolution on r2p which reaffirmed its commitment from the 2005 world summit outcome and put r2p on the annual agenda for many r2p proponents this was another manifestation of worldwide r2p relevance and of growing support among un members to protect people from genocide war crimes ethnic cleansing and crimes against humanity yet the existing crises in myanmar venezuela belarus syria and many others revealed the widening gap between the discourse and practice this book aims to find out what keeps the concept alive despite its indisputable pitfalls in contrast to existing studies that treat the r2p endorsement or contestation as intertwined processes of norm evolution it argues that the status of r2p has been accomplished by the conscious politics of its advocates operating in complex global networks as such the book puts emphasis on the agency of r2p champions and examines who keeps the idea resonating and how they manage to preserve its worldwide relevance rather than proposing a new model of advocacy the book aims to pinpoint the politics of r2p s circulation the importance of individual r2p champions and their interconnectedness through innovative forms of cooperation within complex networks this book will be of much interest to students of the r2p diplomacy human rights foreign policy and international relations
