this study examines the influence of john calvin in ethics eschatology and education as well as those influences that affected him it examines his writings to determine if his vision made him an innovator the research searched for reforms in the areas of ethics curriculum understanding of the teaching office and universal education it also looked at philosophy economics and labor a belief in the after life and end times was an ethical motivation for calvin and education was a means by which the people that he worked with and wrote to could understand how they should live and why they should live like that thus there is an important connection among ethics eschatology and education all people were to work to their potential at their job because in doing their job they would honor god teachers were especially important those who taught would affect the quality of education calvin worked to provide teacher training and support he believed that all occupations could be a special calling from god and education was a means to prepare the young person for his or her calling schools existed in geneva before calvin arrived in 1536 however they did not function in the way that calvin would have liked calvin provided the elementary students with a needed text when he prepared a catechism the students had written material that they could read and study and a systematic presentation of the basic doctrines of the christian faith calvin also wanted more appropriate facilities in which the students could learn although his organization of the schools improved the atmosphere for learning the building of the academy was his dream and became his major educational achievement in the city of geneva because 16th century students needed to be prepared for the new world there was a need for curriculum change the students were required to read many of the prominent greek and roman authors in the ancient languages but the student learned theology hebrew poetry dialectic and rhetoric physics and mathematics as well calvin wished to graduate a well rounded scholar who could take his or her place in society in this way the citizens of geneva and all those of the reformed belief would be better prepared for life on earth and the after life the subject of eschatology has been studied and written about for centuries various viewpoints based on differing hermeneutical perspectives have driven this subject in many directions causing confusion as to how we should view end times from a biblical perspective dispensational theology a d104book on eschatology for the twenty first century is informative instructional and systematic in its approach to eschatology teaching from a dispensational perspective this textbook the first of its kind has been developed from a college syllabus on premillennialism and provides a structured approach to a dispensational theology dispensational theology is designed for those majoring in bible or theology who have already taken course work in new and old testament survey and completed one year of bible doctrine this book is suitable for implementation into any college or seminary program at a 300 or 400 level in an undergraduate program or a 600 level in a seminary program if the minimum recommended course requirements for students have been met this book could also be useful in church or mission bible institute programs while providing another resource for any pastor or educator's library internal structure this textbook provides a background and foundational structure for establishing a two semester course while providing a path for discussions covered over two sections the following topics will be the focus of discussions over fifteen chapters section one premillennialism defining the terms the history and characteristics of amillennialism the history and characteristics of postmillennialism the history and characteristics of premillennialism understanding the kingdom of god the hermeneutics of prophecy dispensations biblical evidence for premillennialism and evidence for premillennialism in the new testament gospels section two the distinction between israel and the church the day of the lord and the day of christ the tribulation period the rapture and related events the second advent and related events the millennium and beyond the icete programme for academic leadership ipal was officially established in 2010 and arose out of the need to provide training to theological institutions in different regions of the world ipal provides a three year cycle of four day seminars for the professional development of evangelical academic leaders to help institutions in their pursuit of quality and excellence this publication is the first of three volumes intended to accompany and support the ipal seminars as well as independently providing wider access to the principles required by academic leaders for institutional development each chapter shares and illustrates the contributors expertise in and understanding of education leadership and administration in the field of evangelical academic institutions with an intentional awareness of a wide range of non western contexts this volume is a much needed guide for senior administrators around the world the distinct subjects of eschatology and gender equality have seen an explosion of interest in recent decades particularly within pentecostal scholarship pentecostalism is regarded ideally as both an eschatological and egalitarian movement however many pentecostals have lamented the inconsistency between the early egalitarian impulse of the movement and its current restrictive practices this situation has been described as the so called pentecostal gender paradox referring to the conflicting freedoms and limitations experienced by pentecostal women pentecostals have also recognized the waning eschatological fervor within the movement and its shifting eschatological convictions leading to calls to rediscover the eschatological heart of the movement despite the renewed interest in both eschatology and women's equality little research has been done to put these two areas into conversation with each other eschatological convictions are often absent in the debate on gender roles in the church for pentecostals eschatology has often been about urgency in saving souls rather than attending to social issues but could pentecostal eschatology be the key to re discovering greater equality for women in the church is the waning of both eschatology and women s equality within pentecostalism potentially interrelated for over one hundred years the role of women in pentecostalism has been debated without a firm consensus by examining gender solely through an eschatological lens in history scripture and praxis this work provides a valuable and creative contribution to one of the most important theological and global issues of our time women s in equality this book is also one of the first comprehensive studies to approach a single social issue solely through an eschatological lens and to provide attention to developing a thorough and methodologically connected eschatological praxis by uncovering the unified eschatological egalitarian narrative thread within both the pentecostal and biblical story this work suggests that the present end of women s inequality begins with fidelity to the future eschaton of gender equality
