in a re visioning of love dark feminine rising ana mozol parts the illusory veils of persona as she explores the reality of feminine experiences relating to love trauma and sexuality in contemporary western society mozol takes us on a personal journey through the three levels of experience delving into the underworld and the trauma of rape the middle world and the illusions of romantic love and the upper world and the masculine spiritual ideals that fracture the feminine soul in this multidisciplinary examination of the feminine mozol seeks to understand violence against women intrapsychically interpersonally and within the field of depth psychology the book begins with mozol's own experiences with violence and her exploration of the demon lover complex and the stages of breaking this complex after trauma combining personal testimony theoretical reflections historical analysis and 20 years of clinical experience mozol uses a heuristic approach to explore personal stories clinical material dreams and depth analysis as they connect to the female individuation process we follow mozol's journey through the middle world and the illusions of romantic love into the upper world and the complexity of oscar wilde's feminine character salomé who represents the rising dark feminine energy that must be reckoned with for the possibility of love to exist accessible yet powerful mozol uses her personal story to place the oppression of women within the jungian context of individuation a re visioning of love dark feminine rising will be key reading for academics and students of jungian and post jungian studies psychotherapy trauma studies gender studies women's studies and criminology it will also be an indispensable resource for jungian psychotherapists and analytical psychologists in practice and in training a re visioning of love however is more than a psychological exploration it is a memoir of the personal and archetypal feminine and as such will appeal to anyone interested in the story of many women today in examining henri nouwen's approach to the ministry of soul care and spiritual formation at close range we can conclude that his holistic and integrative style is essentially drawn from his sophisticated understanding of the coinherence of spirituality with psychology ministry and theology henri nouwen's ministry is characterized by a ministry of integration primarily because he first of all embodied a spirituality of integration his ministry was but an overflow of his spirituality unquestionably nouwen ministered out of who he was as a person a person of deep integrity the author contends that henri nouwen s work of soul care and spiritual formation is never about techniques neither is it about programs and curricula important as they are in ministry more importantly it is definitely not about roles even though multiple roles have been attached to his person
