esteemed by many of his most distinguished contemporaries including arnold schoenberg alexander zemlinsky 1871 1942 was a protégé of brahms and mahler despite this he was overshadowed by the composers of the second viennese school and for many years after his death was remembered merely as the brother in law of Schoenberg but with centenary celebrations of Zemlinsky's birth scholars began a careful examination of his works and realized they had discovered a forgotten master. Zemlinsky's wonderful melodic gift was manifested in operas, choral works, chamber music and symphonic pieces but was realized most fully in his more than one hundred songs. In this important new study, the first such work in English, Lorraine Gorrell focuses on these songs revealing the ways in which they represented a bridge between the 19th century romantic lied and the 20th century avant garde of interest to scholars studying both the German art song and the development of the Second Viennese School. Gorrell's work uses Zemlinsky's songs as a lens through which to examine an important, highly influential musical figure.

Based on a legend of the Pueblo Indians from the Four Corners area of the United States, the libretto by Lilian White Spencer relates the story of the brave Bluefeather who falls in love with the Bonita clan's sun bride. The plot also serves as a frame for the depiction of Indian ceremonies and games which have their foundation on Skilton's research into Pueblo music and lore. The opera is presented in piano vocal score since it was most often performed in this way. The edition includes two plates which juxtapose the piano vocal score with the orchestral score.
