sentences speak his mother dreaded the prospect this elephant will kill you also don't go to death she pleaded with unni but unni was resigned to his fate and sure that death comes but once he felt he had no option but to take up the work devotees were waiting for prasadam seeing the plate empty they went to the temple priest and complained kannan's explanations could convince none finally when the priest started beating up kannan lord krishna appeared before him gajarajan the elephant was renowned not just for his majestic appearance but also his intelligence and human response he labeled me as a fool who left everything to god he frequently admonished me that destiny was shaped by events and i lacked the will to overcome mishaps one thing done at a particular point in time may not hold good at some other time doing the right things at the right time is a prerequisite to everything it is determination and self grit that gets one through tolerance towards fellowmen is the greatness of human beings nature teaches us that nothing is permanent on this earth apart from change itself whatever good or bad happens to us is because god wills it to happen

the novelist ivan turgenev 1818 1883 is known primarily as a chronicler of his age and crafter of elegant prose like the simplest painting of daily artifacts his works have pleased partly because they shape a recognizable world and partly because their form gives to the content its resonant signifying power here jane costlow accounts for both the historicity and aesthetic elegance of turgenev's realist novels in close readings of rudin a nest of gentry on the eve and fathers and children all written between 1855 and 1861 each essay focuses on a particular aspect of turgenev's art as it relates to his human and aesthetic concerns this study challenges traditional views of turgenev as an objective recorder of his times suggesting that the engaging qualities of his novels lie less in their historicity than in the lyricism and aesthetic consciousness with which he shaped his narratives costlow explores the lyric meditation pastoral longing and unspoken emotion that are the hallmarks of turgenev's prose and that make up his worlds within worlds the realms of his novels that elude the historical throughout she demonstrates how the aesthetics of constraint and understatement mask the author's awareness of limitation and complexity in human experience by stressing the enigmatic and challenging qualities of his works costlow exposes turgenev to revealing new readings originally published in 1990 the princeton legacy library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of princeton university press these editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions the goal of the princeton legacy library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by princeton university press since its founding in 1905
