Catholic Social Teaching And Movements Catholic Social Teaching A Guide to Living Out Your Faith in the World Catholic Social Teaching Catholic Social Justice Catholic Social Doctrine Catholic Social Principles We all want to live lives that matter lives that make a difference in the world But sometimes it can be hard to know where to start Thats where Catholic Social Teaching comes in Catholic Social Teaching is a body of Church teachings that guide us in living out our faith in the public square Its about putting our faith into action building a more just and compassionate world for everyone A History of Compassion Catholic Social Teaching isnt a new idea Its been around for centuries evolving alongside the Churchs understanding of the human person and the world around us Early Church Fathers like St Augustine and St Thomas Aquinas laid the groundwork for this tradition emphasizing the dignity of all people and the importance of social justice The 19th and 20th centuries saw a surge in official Church documents addressing specific social challenges of the day like the Industrial Revolution worker exploitation and the rise of communism These documents known as encyclicals pastoral letters and other pronouncements continue to provide valuable guidance for navigating the complexities of the modern world Seven Key Principles Catholic Social Teaching is built upon seven core principles that guide us in our efforts to build a more just and compassionate world

- 1 Life and Dignity of the Human Person Every human being from conception to natural death is created in the image and likeness of God and possesses inherent dignity and worth
- 2 Call to Family Community and Participation We are created for communion and called to live in families and communities that support each other and actively participate in building a just society
- 3 Rights and Responsibilities Every person has fundamental rights including the right to life religious freedom and the right to participate in society Along with these rights come responsibilities to care for others contribute to the common good and protect the environment
- 4 Option for the Poor and Vulnerable We must prioritize the needs of the poor the marginalized and the vulnerable in our society This means advocating for policies that protect them and provide them with opportunities to thrive
- 5 The Dignity of Work and the Rights of Workers All work has inherent dignity and workers deserve fair wages safe working conditions and the right to form unions
- 6 Solidarity We are all interconnected and we have a responsibility to work together to build a more just and equitable world
- 7 Care for Gods Creation We are called to be stewards of Gods creation and to protect the environment for future generations

Putting Principles into Action Catholic Social Teaching is not just about theoretical concepts its a call to action We are challenged to live out these principles in our daily lives through Advocacy Supporting organizations working for justice and speaking out against injustice Service Volunteering our time and resources to help those in need Education Learning about and sharing the teachings of the Church with others Discipleship Living our lives in a way that reflects the values of Catholic Social Teaching How to Get Involved There are countless ways to engage
