this book is a study of the christian life and the practice of christians and the church from an anglican perspective it begins with an analysis and explication of the structure and process of the christian life before god in the church and the world involving a five fold rule of life and the relation of this to spiritual direction this is followed by an analysis and critique of the current spirituality movement which arose in the 1970s and which has come to dominate and mislead the churches a sequel to the latter explains the origin of the spirituality movement in the current romantic movement that arose in the 1960s and has influenced all aspects of our culture with ambiguous results next there is a critique of contemporary parish ministry as practiced in residential parishes that at best ministers only to the private lives of its members followed by a fictional story of such a residential parish that suggests a new departure in parish ministry then there is a critique of preaching in the episcopal church that is generally considered to be poor and a proposal of a way to overcome this the concluding three chapters treat a fundamental problem in our approach to private prayer and a way to resolve this a proposal for a way to overcome the current impasse in the anglican communion concerning homosexuality and a meditation on the responsibility of christians in public life

the purpose in writing this book is to share with you the readers and followers of jesus the deeper meaning of who we are as christians it may come as a surprise to many that the christian life is not a surprisingly easy task the roots go deep as we will explore christianity is a new way of life you might also say it s a journey or a walk of endurance and obedience to our lord and king another way to say this is that it s a walk of faith as we strive to obey god s commands so what is a christian glad you asked a christian is simply one who follows the teachings of the very incarnate son of god jesus unlike all other world religions christianity is a personal relationship with the god and creator of the universe it begins with a call to believe in god o seeker is god calling this is followed by the big eternal question but why god and why me digging deeper at the heart of the gospel is a call to obedience ouch followed by living out that new life in a call to new life in christ and finally a discussion on the undergirding of our christian walk a call to grow in our faith faith is a big topic and is what god gives us to keep everything in balance this book seeks to entertain certain points along life s journey these five essays touch on various topics that we all as christians struggle with at times and as a bonus there s a self study bible study to work through
