morning midday and evening prayer and complies with meditations for the day and four years of daily readings from books 1 and 2

a brand new two year collection of daily readings and prayers with celtic themes and inspiration building on the foundations set down in the first volume this new collection blends the voices of the early celtic and desert saints with more contemporary sources in ways that continue to speak to us in our own generation and culture prayer is the heartbeat of the northumbria community and this book contains the daily office morning midday and evening prayer and compline which can be said or sung to the music provided as well as the daily office there are four original communion services along with liturgies and prayers that have emerged out of real life experiences of seeking god in many differing contexts throughout the world topics include reaching adulthood mid life old age renewal of a marriage the summer solstice living with pain blessing a garden christmas preparation after an argument scattering ashes studying peace the father wound loyalty and sleep among many many others there is also a meditation for each day of the month a revised edition of this classic compendium of readings and prayers for every day of the year with celtic themes and inspiration the first in a two volume collection of liturgies prayers and meditations from the northumbria community inspired by ancient celtic christianity but reaching out to bring inspiration and comfort to all today who seek to be still and to find spiritual truth as a companion for the journey this book offers meditations for the events of life and liturgies for its seasons it also provides a two year cycle of insights and daily reflections with accompanying scripture readings for use in morning and evening prayer this is a rich treasury that is loved and trusted by individuals ministers families groups and communities across the world this book combines the celtic daily prayer and celtic night prayer books and adds to them fresh material born out of the further development of the northumbria community s ways of worship in the intervening years since these books were published responding to the request teach us to pray jesus outlined a pattern of prayer with five basic movements of prayer we call this outline the lord s prayer and often simply recite it the five kinds of praying patterned in the lord s prayer form the basic structure for the body of the prayers in this book this is a collection of forms for prayer day by day each day s form has an initial section for reflecting on scripture and then the rest of the form is patterned by the Lord's prayer with a variety of words and phrases which combine seasonal and biblical themes many of the prayers draw directly and indirectly from scripture they also draw inspiration from Celtic Anglican Catholic Orthodox and other ecumenical sources these forms of prayer are written so as to be used by groups as well as lone pray-ers this collection of prayers is also a helpful resource to supplement or enrich other forms of daily prayer connecting what Jesus said and how we live today in all its messiness and complexity follow me provides practical steps that all of us can take to live the sayings of Jesus

Christianity must be understood not as a religion of private salvation but as a gospel movement of universal compassion which transforms the world in the power of God's truth amid several major global crises including the rise of terrorism and religious fundamentalism and a sudden resurgence of political extremism Christians must now face up fearlessly to the challenges of living in a post-truth age in which deceitful politicians present their media spun fabrications as alternative facts this book is an attempt to enact a transformative theology for these changing times that will equip the global Christian community to take a stand for the gospel in an age of cultural despair and moral fragmentation the emerging post-Christendom era calls for a new vision of Christianity that has come of age and connects with the spiritual crisis of our times in helping to make this vision a reality Searle insists that theology is not merely an academic discipline but a transformative enterprise that changes the world theology is to be experienced not just behind a desk in an armchair or in a church but also in hospitals in foodbanks in workplaces and on the streets theology is to be lived as well as read
