the litany of the tree of life is intended for daily use as an alternative to the form of discursive meditation taught in the knowledge lectures of the order of the golden dawn and specifically for those who are engaged in intensive study of the cabalistic tree of life it may also be found suitable for practice on a more occasional basis such as once per week as a helpful addition to the regular meditations taught by the order a litany such as this falls somewhere in the space between ritual and meditation like a meditation it works primarily with consciousness rather than with the subtle energies directed in magic like magic it is in some sense a performance in which performer and audience are one meditative attention on the symbols and concepts is important for the litany to have its proper effect but so are the vocal and performative dimensions that give magic its power regular practice will teach each initiate to find a personally appropriate balance between these themes in these talks written and presented to a variety of audiences between 2001 and 2010 john michael greer explores the forgotten history of occultism and its unexpected possibilities in our time from practical methods of occult training to the politics and metapolitics of magic from the shadowy world of victorian sex magic to the alchemy of initiatory ritual from the complex origins of modern neopaganism to the approaching twilight of neopagan pop culture and what comes next the talks collected in this book seek to inspire curiosity and reflection not to set out an ironclad case for this or that point of view this book is an extraordinary insight into the life and work of a working magician and occultist
