along with Louise Erdrich's Love Medicine, Leslie Marmon Silko's Ceremony is one of the two most widely taught and studied Native American literature texts. In Ceremony, Silko recounts a young man's search for consolation in his tribe's history and traditions and his resulting voyage of self-discovery and discovery of the world. This casebook includes a variety of theoretical approaches and provides readers with crucial information, especially on Native American beliefs that will enhance their understanding and appreciation of this contemporary classic. This collection also includes two interviews with Leslie Marmon Silko in which she explains the importance of oral tradition and storytelling along with the autobiographical basis of the novel.

The great Native American novel of a battered veteran returning home to heal his mind and spirit, one of the Atlantic's great American novels of the past 100 years, more than thirty-five years since its original publication, Ceremony remains one of the most profound and moving works of Native American literature: a novel that is itself a ceremony of healing. Tayo, a World War II veteran of mixed ancestry, returns to the Laguna Pueblo reservation; he is deeply scarred by his experience as a prisoner of the Japanese and further wounded by the rejection he encounters from his people. Only by immersing himself in the Indian past can he begin to regain the peace that was taken from him. Masterfully written, filled with the somber majesty of Pueblo myth, Ceremony is a work of enduring power. The Penguin Classics Deluxe Edition contains a new preface by the author and an introduction by Larry McMurtry. For more than seventy years, Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English-speaking world. With more than 1,700 titles, Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines. Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors, as well as up-to-date translations by award-winning translators.

An exciting collection of new essays on the work of the outstanding American Indian woman writer.

Contains sixteen interviews that provide insight into the thinking and writing of twentieth-century Native American author Leslie Marmon Silko.

This companion, appropriate for the lay reader and researcher alike, provides analysis of characters, plots, humor, symbols, philosophies, and classic themes from the writings and tellings of Leslie Marmon Silko, the celebrated novelist, poet, memoirist, and Native American wisewoman. The text opens with an annotated chronology of Silko's multiracial heritage, life, and works, followed by a family tree of the Leslie Marmon families that clarifies relationships of the people who fill her autobiographical musings. In the main text, 87 A to Z entries combine literary and cultural commentary with generous citations from primary and secondary sources and comparisons to classic and popular literature. Back matter includes a glossary of Pueblo terms and a list of 43 questions for research, writing projects, and discussion. This much-needed text will aid both scholars and casual readers interested in the work and career of the first internationally acclaimed Native woman author in the United States.

A new novella from the acclaimed author of Ceremony and Almanac of the Dead, Leslie Marmon Silko is the author of the novels Ceremony, Almanac of the Dead, and Gardens in the Dunes. She has also written many short stories, poems, and essays, and her most recent book is a memoir, The Turquoise Ledge, the recipient of a MacArthur Fellowship.
