a collection of essays and reviews by renowned author j g ballard spanning over thirty years and covering film science art literature and current affairs discusses the significance of the coming millennium discribes how things have changed and stayed the same over the millennia and suggests related activities to commemorate the event this book is the first sustained investigation of the political dimension in the work of j g ballard a product of and reaction to the cultural socio economic moment commonly designated as the postmodern condition ballard s oeuvre is read as a continuous and developing meditation on the postmodern examining it specifically as an expression of late capitalism the book shows that at the heart of this meditation lies the question of resistance drawing on a wide range of concepts and ideas taken from the field of critical theory it argues that in the face of a world marked by an unprecedented expansion of capital in which modernity s grand narratives have been invalidated and in which received forms of political struggle have lost their effectiveness ballard's fiction commits itself to a deliberately irrational and extreme pataphysical thought in order to develop a new discourse of resistance against past readings that have construed ballard's writing as non political decadent or quietist the study thus reveals ballard as a thoroughly political author committed to a subversive politics in this way the book also constitutes a timely intervention in the ongoing discussion concerning the nature and state of the political architecture and capitalism tells a story of the relationship between the economy and architectural design eleven historians each discuss in brand new essays the time period they know best looking at cultural and economic issues which in light of current economic crises you will find have dealt with diverse but surprisingly familiar economic issues told through case studies the narrative begins in the mid nineteenth century and ends with 2011 with introductions by editor peggy deamer to pull the main themes together so that you can see how other architects in different times and in different countries have dealt with similar economic conditions by focussing on what previous architects experienced you have the opportunity to avoid repeating the past with new essays by pier vittorio aureli ellen dunham jones keller easterling lauren kogod robert hewison joanna merwood salisbury robin schuldenfrei deborah gans simon sadler nathan rich and micahel sorkin

j g ballard is one of the most significant british writers of the contemporary period his award winning novels are widely studied and read yet the appeal of ballard's idiosyncratic and often controversial imagination is such that his work also enjoys something of a cult status with the reading public the hugely successful cinematic adaptations of empire of the sun spielberg 1987 and crash cronenberg 1996 further confirm ballard's unique place within the literary cultural and popular imaginations this guide includes new critical perspectives on ballard's major novels as well as his short stories and journalistic writing covering issues of form narrative and experimentation whilst offering fresh readings of dominant and recurring themes in ballard's writing including history sexuality violence consumer capitalism and urban space the contributors also explore ballard's contribution to major contemporary debates including those surrounding post 9 11 politics terrorism neo imperialism science morality and ethics an authorized guide with inside information and behind the scenes stories from the cult tv drama millennium created by chris carter this book is available as open access through the bloomsbury open access programme and is available on bloomsburycollections.com the trojan horse traces the growth of commercial sponsorship in the public sphere since the 1960s its growing importance for the arts since 1980 and its spread into areas such as education and health the authors central argument is that the image of sponsorship as corporate benevolence has served to routinize and legitimate the presence of commerce within the public sector the central metaphor is of such sponsorship as a trojan horse helping to facilitate the hollowing out of the public sector by private agencies and private finance the authors place the study in the context of the more general colonization of the state by private capital and the challenge posed to the dominance of neo liberal economics by the recent global financial crisis after considering the passage from patronage to sponsorship and outlining the context of the post war public sector since 1945 it analyses sponsorship in relation to thatcherism enterprise culture and the restructuring of public provision during the 1980s it goes on to examine the new labour years and the ways in which sponsorship has paved the way for the increased use of private public partnerships and private finance initiatives within the public sector in the uk
